GRADUATE BOWDOIN PRIZES
2020-2021

COMPOSITIONS AND DISSERTATIONS IN GREEK AND LATIN

TWO GRADUATE PRIZES

(A) A $10,000 prize is offered for an original essay in Classical Greek.
(B) A $10,000 prize is offered for an original essay in Classical Latin.

Essays offered in competition for these prizes may be on any subject chosen by the competitor, and must contain at least 1,000 words. Parts of doctoral dissertations are eligible. Essays presented for other prizes are not admissible.

Further details on this and other prizes may be obtained from the website of the Prize Office (http://prizes.fas.harvard.edu) or by email (prizes@harvard.edu).

RULES

All submissions must be made under a pseudonym and must conform to the directions on the submission website (http://tinyurl.com/classicsprizes2021). Only the pseudonym should appear on the translation, and the submitter’s real name should not. See submission form for details.

DEADLINE

Last day of spring classes: Wednesday, April 28, 2021, 5 p.m.
This deadline applies to all students graduating May 2021 or later.

Any students graduating before May 2021 must make any submissions by the last day of fall classes: Thursday, December 3, 2020, 5 p.m.

QUESTIONS?

https://classics.fas.harvard.edu/prizes
classics@fas.harvard.edu