

Arthur Deloraine Corey Fellowship

2020–2021

§

Bequest of Isabella H. Corey in memory of and in accordance with the wishes of her son, Arthur Deloraine Corey, 1886, “to be known as the Arthur Deloraine Corey Fellowship; and the income only thereof shall be expended in aid of meritorious graduates of the College who may pursue their studies in classical philology and archaeology, one or both, in such universities or schools in Europe as may be approved by said President and Fellows. The beneficiaries of said fund shall be appointed by said President and Fellows on the nomination of the Classical Department of the University.”

§

Seniors who wish to apply should submit a letter of application and proposed budget to the Director of Undergraduate Studies by Wednesday, April 28, to the Department of the Classics, no later than 5:00 p.m. The letter and budget may be submitted by email to classicsdus@fas.harvard.edu.