LOWELL PRIZE EXAMINATION
2017-2018

The George Emerson Lowell Prize is offered annually for the best performance in an examination on Greek or Latin language and literature.

Undergraduates with sophomore or junior standing are eligible.

The examination this year is in Latin and will be given in Boylston Hall 237 on Tuesday, April 24, 6:00–8:00 p.m.

Sophomores taking the examination this year will also be eligible for the examination next year.

Interested undergraduates should inform the DUS, Professor Naomi Weiss, as soon as possible, via email (classicsdus@fas.harvard.edu), and no later than 5:00 p.m., Tuesday, April 17.
