

GRADUATE BOWDOIN PRIZES 2023–2024

COMPOSITIONS AND DISSERTATIONS IN GREEK AND LATIN

TWO GRADUATE PRIZES

- (A) A $3,500 prize is offered for an original essay in Classical Greek.
- (B) A $3,500 prize is offered for an original essay in Classical Latin.

Essays offered in competition for these prizes may be on any subject chosen by the competitor, and must contain at least 1,000 words. Parts of doctoral dissertations are eligible. Essays presented for other prizes are not admissible.

Further details on this and other prizes may be obtained from the website of the Prize Office (<http://prizes.fas.harvard.edu>) or by email (prizes@harvard.edu).

RULES

All submissions must be made under a pseudonym and must conform to the directions on the submission website (<http://tinyurl.com/classicsprizes2024>). Only the pseudonym should appear on the translation, and the submitter's real name should not. See submission form for details.

DEADLINE

Last day of spring classes: Wednesday, April 24, 2024, 5 p.m.

QUESTIONS?

<https://classics.fas.harvard.edu/prizes-graduate>
classics@fas.harvard.edu